NUTRIMETICS GLOSSARY

Here are some handy terms you'll need to know as a Nutrimetics Consultant.

Beauty Consultant

A Consultant is a person who shares Nutrimetics' products with friends and family to earn money, rewards and much more. Consultants love naturally enriched beauty and love enjoying a flexible lifestyle with big rewards.

Upline Manager

This is a mentor and the person who invites you to join Nutrimetics to shop, save and potentially earn extra money if you choose to. An Upline Manager can show you how to make a real success of the Nutrimetics flexible earnings opportunity.

N-Central

N-Central is the new home for everything you need to manage your Nutrimetics account and promote your beauty business. You can see how much you've earned, get training and tools to manage your business, plus more. Login at team.nutrimetics.com

Sky Wallet

Sky Wallet manages all your commission, earnings, available credits and coupons. Use Sky Wallet to view your available balances and transfer balances.

Treatments, workshops or Nutrimetics parties

You bring friends plus their friends their very own personalised pop-up beauty shop, either online via zoom or in person. They'll have fun, try products and shop while you earn money. Treatments and workshops are lots of fun and the bloodline of Nutrimetics.

Treatment bookings

A treatment booking is the date you get in the diary for a Nutrimetics treatment. If you keep your diary filled with treatment bookings, your income will grow higher and higher.

Forward bookings

This is when a guest at a workshop agrees to host their own beauty treatment with you.

Sponsoring (refer a friend)

This is simply inviting as many people as possible to open their own Nutrimetics' account, so they can enjoy all of the benefits you get, plus they have the opportunity to earn money like you, too. The more people you invite, the bigger and better the rewards get.

Elevation

This is when you reach a certain number of sales and you invite a certain number of people to join Nutrimetics. You'll automatically qualify to achieve amazing rewards like free cars, free holidays and free jewellery. There are eight levels to reach and each one comes with higher earnings. Ask your Consultant about the pathway to success. The compensation plan is also available in Consultant Resources in Sky Wallet.

Thank You Gift

If you have opened a Nutrimetics account and you spend $110RRP or more in one order, you will be rewarded with an amazing gift that will automatically be added when you place an order in N-Central. You have the chance to earn new Thank You Gifts every month.

Bonus Gift

If you sell $500BV worth of product, you'll be rewarded with a special gift. You will find this gift updated in N-Central and you will receive a coupon code that will attach to your order at the checkout.

Preview Pack

This is the chance to buy next month's new release products from brochure early, before anyone else with a huge discount. Look out for the preview pack email monthly.

BV

BV stands for Bonus Value. It is the price minus GST on the personal sales you achieve.

Rebate

This is the product value you can earn back from the more naturally enriched beauty you sell.
